

RICH MAN TO WED PRETTY HOUSEMAID

Ludwig Morris, 70 Years Old,
Falls in Love with Comely
Servant of 23.

Friends of aged Ludwig Morris, who have been puzzled by his buoyancy of spirits of late, have just learned that he plans to marry his pretty young housekeeper, Ida, next week.

Morris is a wealthy property owner, and lives on the first floor of one of his apartment houses at No. 102 West One Hundred and Fourteenth street. His first wife died three years ago, and Morris, who is past seventy, was disconsolate. Friends asked him why he did not marry again, but he said the days had passed when he could fall in love.

It was still of this opinion when he engaged Ida to care for his home six months ago. She is a comely girl of twenty-three, who came to this country from Hungary. Morris told friends yesterday that he would marry his housekeeper next Tuesday or Wednesday. He is credited with being worth more than $200,000. The wedding will be unostentatious, and Morris is redecorating his apartment and refurbishing it, so that his bride will have little to suggest her former position in the household.

Tomorrow--The ARROW SALE

Tomorrow--the eighth Arrow Sale will be ready. There will be 141 under-priced offerings on sale throughout the store--remarkably-priced, about a third, and in some instances even a half, less than the regular selling prices. The green cards displayed on counters point straight at the merchandise on sale, besides telling you the regular selling price and the Arrow Sales price. The booklet you receive as you enter the store tells you all that, too--and also on what floor each particular item is selling, and a brief description of it. In some instances quantities are not large enough to last through the day, so early selection may obviate disappointment. Fifty cents has a dollar's worth of purchasing power in many instances here tomorrow. We cannot promise to fill mail orders on these goods.
